

JIM BIKOFF, Member of the ECTA Anti-Counterfeiting Committee, Attorney at Law, Silverberg Goldman & Bikoff LLP, and Chair of the Intellectual Property and Internet Practice Group of the firm, US

James L Bikoff is chairman of the IP and internet group at Silverberg Goldman & Bikoff. He has been active for more than 40 years, directing worldwide IP and domain name protection, litigation and anti-counterfeiting enforcement, including serving as lead counsel for the US Olympic Committee during the 1996 Olympic Games and as lead counsel for the 1994 World Cup and the 1999 and 2003 Women's World Cups.

Mr Bikoff was lead counsel for the IOC, US Olympic Committee and the Salt Lake Organising Committee for the Olympic Winter Games of 2002 in a cybersquatting action against 1,800 domain names. He has also achieved a string of victories in Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy proceedings on behalf of the IOC and other clients.

Mr Bikoff is a member of the IP Section of the American Bar Association (Chair – Trademark Legislation), the European Community Trademark Association (Anti-Counterfeiting Committee), the International Trademark Association (Internet Committee, Chair – Domain Disputes and Whois Subcommittee) and the New York Intellectual Property Association (Trademark Committee). He is a member of editorial and advisory boards, including IP Litigator and the International Quarterly.

Mr Bikoff has written and spoken frequently on IP and domain name protection and enforcement in the United States and abroad, and has testified before Congress in support of IP legislation, including the US Anti-cybersquatting Consumer Protection Act. He is the author and co-author of numerous articles on trademark, copyright and domain name issues, including "Hauling in the Middleman: Infringement in North America", Oxford University, Journal of Intellectual Property and Practice, February 2010; "Legislation Takes Aim at Websites Dedicated to Infringing Activity", World Trademark Review, October/November 2011; "Legislation Targets Theft of US Property by Rogue Websites", World Trademark Review, February/March 2012; and "Federal Circuit Provides Trademark Owners Tool To Prevent Repeated Attacks", World Trademark Review Daily, January 2013.