

Alicante 2014

33rd Annual Conference | June 18-21, 2014

ECTA

INGRID BUFFOLO, Head of Institutional Relations, International Cooperation and Legal Affairs Department, OHIM, ES

Born in 1966, Ingrid Buffolo qualified as a Telecommunications engineer from the University of Trier in Germany. After her thesis and some time working in the Project Centre for HP in Frankfurt, she joined the Société Européenne des Satellites in Luxemburg where she worked for six years in Business Administration and Project Management. In 1998 she joined the OHIM and moved in 2002 to the Quality Management Department. In 2009 she became Head of Linguistic and IT Co-operation Projects, her main responsibilities including the TMView, TMclass and Harmonized Goods and Services database projects. Since July 2010 Ingrid Buffolo is Head of Institutional Relations Service responsible for OHIM stakeholder relations, and is leading the Convergence programme in cooperation with the 28 European National Offices, her main aim being the creation and maintenance of the European Trademark and Design Network.