

DR. CHRISTOPH ERNST, Head of Directorate (Ministerialdirigent), Federal Ministry of Justice, DE

Christoph, born in 1954 in Bremen - Initially worked as an attorney in Bremen, focusing on commercial and economic law as well as tax law; in 1989 obtained the additional qualification of "specialist lawyer in tax law". - Joined the Federal Ministry of Justice in the Directorate General for Commercial and Economic Law. - Since May 2010: Head of Directorate in the Federal Ministry of Justice, focusing mainly on general economic law, new technologies and intellectual property. - Head of the German delegation in the Administrative Council of the European Patent Office (EPO) and member of the Board of the Administrative Council. - Germany's representative in the European preparatory bodies on the EU patent (Select Committee at the EPO and Preparatory Committee for the European Patent Jurisdiction). - Head of the German delegation in the Administrative Council of the EU Office for Harmonization in the Internal Market (Trade Marks and Designs) (OHIM). - Furthermore, German representative at the General Assembly of the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO).