

KARIN KUHL, Head of Service, Quality Matters and Cancellation (OD), OHIM, ES

Karin Kuhl completed her law studies in Germany and qualified as a lawyer at the Frankfurt bar in 1996. She holds a Master's degree in European Law from the University of Exeter (England).

Before joining OHIM she worked for several years as a legal adviser for the German Association of Chemical Industry in Frankfurt where she was responsible for the section on 'Industrial Property Law and Competition Law'. During this time she mainly dealt with European legislation on biotechnological inventions and also compensation of employee inventors.

In 2000 she joined OHIM, where she worked for several years as a trade mark examiner and IP legal adviser. Currently she heads the Quality Matters and Cancellation Service in the Operations Department (OD). The Service groups all the IP legal advisers of OD and is in charge of providing legal advice and training services to all the trade mark examiners, as well as implementing new tools and templates for decision drafting. In addition, it also deals with all the processes related to CTM cancellation actions.
