

MARIUS SCHNEIDER, Chair of the ECTA Anti-Counterfeiting Committee, Member of the EU Observatory on Infringements of Intellectual Property Rights, Attorney-at-law at the Brussels and Mauritius bar, CEW, IPvocate and IPvocateAfrica, BE

Marius Schneider is an Attorney-at-law with CEW IPvocate and IPvocateAfrica. Marius has 15 years' experience in the field of intellectual property.

He is Chairman of the ECTA Anti-Counterfeiting Committee and represents ECTA in the EU Observatory on intellectual property right infringements.

He is the co-editor of the Oxford University Press publication 'Enforcement of Intellectual Property Rights through Border Measures – Law and Practice in the EU' (second edition – June 2012) as well as of several articles and contributions on subjects related to the enforcement of IP rights.

He is a graduate of the University of Louvain-la-Neuve (Belgium) and holds Master's degrees from University College London (Master's in EU law - UK) and the Katholieke Universiteit Brussel (Master's in IP - Belgium). He lectures on intellectual property (post-graduate course for managers of SMEs) at the ICHEC college (Institut Catholique des Hautes Etudes Commerciales) – and is a regular speaker at conferences on intellectual property law in Europe and beyond. He has served as a consultant on WIPO and EU missions and is a recognised expert for WCO training courses (Brussels – Belgium) and at the Academy of European Law (ERA – Trier, Germany) has been invited to participate as an expert in a working group of the OHIM Cooperation Fund on counterfeiting and piracy. He is on the editorial board of the Oxford University Press Journal of Intellectual Property Law and Practice.

Marius works for several national and international clients with a focus on Europe and Africa. He is fluent in English, French, Dutch and German. He is admitted to the Brussels and Mauritius bar.