LAURENT NOWAK, French & European Trademark and Design Attorney, Cabinet Plasseraud, FR

Laurent NOWAK is a French and European Trademark and Design Attorney. He studied Law in Paris (Master's Degree in International and European Business Law) before obtaining a LL.M in Intellectual Property at Queen Mary (University of London) followed by a Master II Degree in Competition and Distribution Law at the University of Rennes (France).

Laurent then worked for several years in IP Law firms in Paris. He also experienced working in the IP Department of an Australian Law firm before joining Cabinet Plasseraud in 2012.

At Cabinet Plasseraud, Laurent manages portfolios of trademarks, designs and domain names and assists clients both on a national level and abroad. He advises clients operating notably in the DIY and tobacco industries and on behalf of a well-known French football club.

Laurent is also an active member of APRAM.
